Lori Church-Pursley

Lori Church-Pursley grew up in Western WA and loves being back "for good" in the area after time spent living in Arizona, Texas and Mexico. She holds a doctorate in Rhetoric, Composition and the Teaching of English from the University of Arizona, and a MA and BA from WWU. She is an Area Manager for the SKC region of Girl Scouts of Western Washington where she serves 1,200 girl members and 400 adults in Renton/Skyway, Maple Valley, Black Diamond, Covington and Ravensdale. She is also a Rotarian, past Club President and past District Officer for Rotary District 5030. She lives with her loving husband, two adorable children, and big dog in the Benson Hill area of Renton.
